

Two Fireside Chats, February 2019

Economic Security is one of national AAUW's main focus issues. In keeping with this priority, the Program Committee for 2018-19 is coordinating programs and speakers that shed light on this crucial area. Both our February Fireside Chats take controversial and topical issues which affect women's economic security. We're not going to be able to solve these problems or even agree on strategies. But we hope you will enjoy exploring the issues in a low-key way among friends.

Friday, February 8, 2019, 7 to 8:30 pm
Lakeshore Ecumen Fireside Room
4002 London Road

Topic: Healthcare

Jennifer Schultz, Director of UMD's Healthcare Management Program and State Repres. for District 7A, will lead a discussion on healthcare. Come with questions!

Tea, coffee, and cookies provided

Thursday, February 28, 2019, 6 to 8:30 pm

Valentini's Vicino Largo (Italian Restaurant) Private Room, Lower Level
1400 London Road

Topic: Immigrant Stories

We want to try a slightly different format for this get-together. Come at 6 pm and order food and drinks for yourself (Dutch treat) and socialize with others before the program begins at 7 pm. To put a human face to things, the program will involve several first-generation immigrants talking about their experiences coming to and living in the USA. Participants include Susana Pelayo-Woodward, Director, UMD's Office of Diversity and Inclusion and AAUW Duluth/UMD liaison.

For further information contact Zabelle or Joyce at kzstodola@ualr.edu or jhidahl@gmail.com